

WASHINGBOROUGH HALL

A Warm Welcome to Washingborough Hall

The Hotel

Washingborough Hall is a charming country house hotel set in three acres of mature garden in the heart of Washingborough village. This fine example of Georgian architecture was once the rectory and lies close to the pretty village church. It is within easy access to the historic city of Lincoln and surrounding area. Privately owned and managed by husband and wife team Edward and Lucy Herring, the hotel is renowned for its warm, friendly atmosphere and personal service - truly a 'home from home'.

Washingborough Hall has 12 comfortable, well-equipped bedrooms. All are individually designed with the best of their original Georgian features, but come well equipped with modern flat-screen televisions, DVD players, and wireless Internet access. Guests have facilities to make a cup of tea or coffee accompanied by homemade biscuits for that little something special.

The mature garden surrounding the house offers a secluded oasis of peace and quiet that can be enjoyed for moments of quiet contemplation or a game of croquet or boules.

The Dining Room

Washingborough Hall's restaurant The Dining Room offers a menu of the finest locally sourced, homemade dishes. Head chef, Dan Wallis, designs the seasonal menus around prime Lincolnshire produce. The light, airy west-facing room with its high ceiling and full-length Georgian windows overlooks the garden.

Guests may visit Washingborough Hall for anything from a cup of coffee in the lounge, a light meal in the bar, to a mouthwatering choice of courses in the restaurant.

Washingborough Hall offers a relaxed dining experience for everyone no matter what the occasion, pop in for a casual supper with friends or celebrate something special.

The restaurant is recognised not only for its excellent menu, but also for its friendly, relaxed atmosphere and good service, nothing is too much trouble.

Weddings and Special Occasions

Washingborough Hall's Georgian house and mature gardens are an idyllic setting for celebrating a wedding or special occasion. Overlooking the garden the spacious rooms with their high ceilings, full-length windows and original features give a feeling of grandeur to every wedding. The mature garden is a beautiful backdrop for the photographs of the special day. Whether couples are seeking a civil ceremony or simply a wedding reception Washingborough Hall offers the perfect venue - a beautiful setting, delicious individually designed menus, and a stunning bridal suite.

The beautiful Sibthorpe Room is also ideal for other special occasions and functions such as anniversary celebrations, special birthdays, naming ceremonies and funeral teas.

Meetings and Conferences

The private nature of Washingborough Hall will suit meetings, small business conferences or private functions. The hotel offers well-equipped conference facilities to suit groups of up to 50 delegates. Away from the stress of everyday office life delegates can retreat to network, plan or strategise in peace and quiet. The hotel is conveniently located just 3 miles from the centre of Lincoln and is easily accessible from the surrounding area.
